

Press Release

Date: June 29, 2009

Contact: Esther M. Jones
Administrative Assistant
(503) 325-4521

PORT OF ASTORIA CELEBRATES ART CONTEST WINNERS!

The Port of Astoria is pleased to announce winners of the Port of Astoria second annual art contest, FANTASY CRUISE SHIP. Youth were invited to draw a fantasy cruise ship they would like to see dock at the Port of Astoria.

Winners in the 4-6 age group: 1st Place, Maggie Blaser; 2nd Place, Meghan McGilley. 7-9 age group: 1st Place, Ethan Knopski; 2nd Place, Joe Ramvick. 10-13 age group: 1st Place, Ruby Reed; 2nd Place, Henry William Meiners. 14+ age group: 1st Place, Kyle W. Thorton; 2nd Place, Brandon Holt. A total of 125 drawings were submitted.

The group gathered on the cruise ship Carnival Splendor when visiting Astoria, Oregon for the last time this season June 16th. Winners received a tour of the ship and awards ceremony that included a vast array of delicious h'orduerves and beverages. Each winner also received a medal, a cruise ship trophy, pin, pen, playing cards, and a gift box set of key chain, pen and leather card holder, all with the Carnival insignia. Family members and their teachers joined them.